Spruce Gum the Most Valuable Product of the Forest.

It is gathered from the spruce trees of Maine, the supply of which is limited and very difficult to gather. The medical properties contained in this gum is very valuable in all cases of pulmonary diseases, as discovered by the great German specialist, Dr. Otto, and as recommended by him after a thorough research for the benefit of the medical world and all mankind. In order that the suprespecting public may the unsuspecting public may be protected and not impos-ed upon by the many imita-tions that are springing up,

Dr. Otto's Spruce Gum Balsam has been fully protected by trade mark and put up in specially prepared cartoons, of which the illustration in the advertisement is a reduced facsimile. The gen-uine is made only by the Comedians who are good gaggers themselves frequently patronize the merchant when he has a special flow of side-splitting ideas and their own inspiration fails them.

That some of the most successful gags are not the outcome of monumental intellects may be imagined by the fact that the hit of a suburban pantomime last year was the reiteration of the words: "Oh, ain't it 'ot!" -a gem from the treasure trove of the gag merchant.
